Proposal B – Create a Practice Squad (Select Yes or No) – Passed

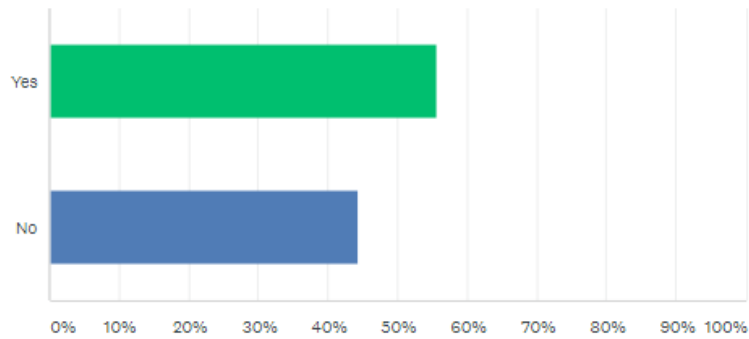

Last year we created a practice squad. We expanded Rosters by four (4) players to create a practice squad. Practice Squad players can be added to the roster after Week one via free agent transactions based on the standings. Practice squad players can move back and forth from the active roster to the regular roster and vice versa during the week. In order to be in the starting lineup a player must be on the active Roster. There are no position limits for the practice squad except for the QB and Def/Spt positions in which you can only keep (1) one player at that position on the practice squad. Practice squads get locked at the transaction deadline and a player can only go to the active roster if a player from the active roster goes to IR.

Should this rule become permanent?

Proposal D – Auto Draft Rules (Select 1 option) – Option A Passed

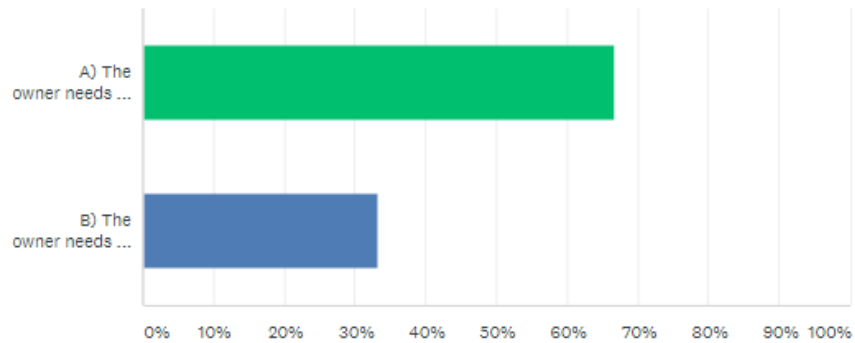

If an owner can not attend the VFF Draft, that owner has the option in doing an auto draft. However, in order to do so, the owner needs meet the following rule.

- A) The owner needs to submit a list of players they want to draft by round and teams that they want players drafted from. This list needs to be submitted Friday evening before the draft. In addition, the owner needs to buy the Commissioner a beer costing $10 coming out of the owner’s winnings. Failure to do so means no players will be picked for the owner and the owner will have to fill their roster via free agent pickups after the draft.

- B) The owner needs to submit a list of players they want to draft by round and teams that they want players drafted from. This list needs to be submitted Friday evening before the draft. In addition, the owner needs to buy the Commissioner a beer costing $20 coming out of the owner’s winnings. Failure to do so means no players will be picked for the owner and the owner will have to fill their roster via free agent pickups after the draft.
